BIRGITTA FESTIVAL

Throughout the years, Birgitta Festival has established itself a steady place in the landscape of music surrounded by the Baltic Sea. For all genres of stage music, the festival is in a continuous development while every year surprising its audience with new projects. The unique mood at Pirita Convent and the festival programme full of music and performance arts complement each other perfectly well.

The core of Birgitta Festival lies in its atmosphere. Every year, the festival brings together more than 8000 people who are gathered at the ancient spot by River Pirita in the mellow evenings of August. For a few days, a prominent music theatre emerges at the Pirita Convent where the audience can delve into the magical world of sounds. The diverse audience of Birgitta Festival is a phenomenon on its own. The unique atmosphere of the festival is made of the special location, its audience, festivity, numerous emotional encounters and extraordinary musical spectacles – all this keeps bringing people together every year.

Every music aficionado will find something special in Birgitta Festival, whether it be an opera, a ballet, music galas, new music performance or spectacle. This is a meeting place for grand masters and intoxicating experiments, guest performances and domestic productions, the classics and the contemporary. The highest stars and emerging talents have performed here by the peaceful proximity of the sea. Even years later they still recall the medieval stone walls painted by the sunset, the tender summer nights; strolls lit by the torchlight and the Moon; vivid Bordeaux red carpets and the contemplative echo of the church bells. The audience and the performers become a whole in such an enjoyable time of the year. Every performance is accompanied by screens displaying subtitles, comfortable
