

Artistic innovation and musical discovery

Established 39 years ago in the former county town of Radnorshire, the Presteigne Festival has become a focal-point for those seeking musical innovation and artistic discovery amidst the beauty of the Welsh Marches.

Internationally renowned for its commissioning of new work, support of living composers and with a long tradition for the encouragement of talented young

Lan

The Presteigne Festival has long been celebrated for its commissioning of new music from a wide range of composers. Thanks to generous