Welcome to Westport Festival of Chamber Music

Established in 2013, we are a boutique festival presenting music performed by the finest of musicians from Ireland and abroad.

What makes us rather special and sets us apart from other festivals is that our fifteen or so musicians stay in Westport for a week. They are living, eating meals together, rehearsing in and around the town, also in some of our patron's lovely homes. This encourages deep musical bonds and friendships that go beyond the performances we hear at the end of the week; It also creates a musical intimacy and allows for real spontaneity to
